

The marriage of Miss Jeanne Marie Wise, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wise, of New York City and Onancock, Va., to Daniel Thomas Kelly Jr., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Thomas Kelly, of Santa Fe, took place Saturday at the Church of St. Thomas More, New York, N. Y. The Rev. Philip Murphy performed the ceremony. A reception followed at the River Club.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of white taffeta with portrait neckline outlined with seed pearls and tucked tulle, long tight sleeves, fitted bodice, and bouffant skirt ending in a chapel train. Her finger-tip veil of silk illusion was arranged from an Empress Eugenia cap of matching illusion, edged with petals and pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and white orchids.

Mrs. Paul Mallory of St. Davids, Pa., was matron of honor, and Miss Betty Lou Wise, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The other bridal attendants were the Misses Caroline Kelly, sister of the bridegroom, of Santa Fe, Eleanor Schafly and Mary Janet Kinsella, both of St. Louis, Mo.

Mr. Mark Kelly was best man for his brother. The ushers were Wm. Booker Kelly, brother of the groom, Gordon Lyle, David Davenport, Amherst, N. H., and Morris Gray, Dedham, Mass.

Mrs. Kelly was graduated from Rogers Hall, Lowell, Mass., and from Pine Manor Junior College, Wellesley, Mass. She served in World War II in the Waves, stationed at Pensacola, Fla.

Mr. Kelly was graduated from Portsmouth, R. I., Priory School and, in 1943, from Harvard College. He is an alumnus also of the graduate school of business administration of Harvard University.

Mr. Kelly served as a captain in the field artillery during World War II, in the European theater, and served in Korea as a major. He received the bronze star with cluster. Mr. Kelly is president of Gross Kelly and Co., which has branches throughout New Mexico. After a trip to California, the couple will live in Santa Fe.
